

Winter Discovery Camp: Explore, Create, and Celebrate!

□ Program Overview

- ❖ Target Group: G1 ~ G6
- ❖ Duration: December 15th ~ December 19th (1 week)
- ❖ Schedule: 9:30am - 2:30pm

□ Theme: Winter STEAM Creations: Invent, Design, and Build

- ❖ Hands-on STEAM learning: Students explore winter-themed science, technology, engineering, arts, and math through creative projects and experiments.
- ❖ Practical activities: Includes woodworking, simple sewing, cooking, outdoor exploration, and craft-based design connected to real-world concepts.
- ❖ Cultural experiences: Learning about Christmas traditions from around the world, culminating in a holiday presentation and exhibition.
- ❖ Enrichment for internal students: Guided activities enhance classroom learning, build confidence, creativity, and skills, and prepare students to excel academically.

□ Program Goals

- ❖ Ignite curiosity and creativity through design, construction, and STEAM-based exploration.
- ❖ Develop problem-solving and teamwork skills through collaborative project work.
- ❖ Promote empathy and global awareness by learning about winter traditions and cultures from other countries.
- ❖ Build confidence and academic readiness by applying learned concepts to real-life projects.
- ❖ Encourage self-expression and innovation through hands-on activities that blend art, science, and craftsmanship.

□ Expected Outcomes

By the end of the program, students will be able to:

- ❖ Apply STEAM concepts to real-world, winter-themed projects through hands-on experiments and creative design activities.
- ❖ Demonstrate practical skills in woodworking, simple sewing, cooking, outdoor exploration, and crafts.
- ❖ Show increased curiosity and creativity in exploring scientific ideas and artistic expressions.
- ❖ Work collaboratively and communicate effectively during group projects and presentations.
- ❖ Display confidence and independence in completing tasks and sharing their learning outcomes.
- ❖ Appreciate cultural diversity by understanding and presenting Christmas traditions from different countries.
- ❖ Reflect on their learning experiences with greater enthusiasm, readiness, and confidence to engage in future classroom activities.
